

Please keep the New Jersey Do Not Call Program in affect, it is so nice to sit down to have diner with my family without the phone ringing off the hook with calls from telemarketers who can't pronounce your name right.